

Post-16 Destinations

2016 Post-16 Leavers FE Destinations	Kingston University	Westminster Kingsway College	Sadlers Wells Theatre	CONEL College
	Kingston University London offers a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses for UK and international students. The university specialises in the arts, design, fashion, science, engineering, and business.	A further education college in central London with centres in Camden and Westminster offering academic and vocational courses at all levels for 16-18 year olds and adult learners, including BTECs, A-Levels, Apprenticeships, Foundation Degrees, Access to HE, Higher Education, Distance Learning, Employability Training and Short Courses, as well as bespoke training for employers, Apprenticeships and a careers guidance programme to support students progressing on to positive destinations, in work or further study.	Roundhouse and Sadler's Wells Theatre have been working in partnership since 2014 to offer apprenticeships in Technical Theatre. The yearlong apprenticeship offers two young people an opportunity to gain a Level 2 qualification in Technical Theatre: Sound, Light and Stage whilst working as professionals and learning alongside the technical teams in both venues.	The College of Haringey, Enfield and North East London (CONEL) offers a wide range of apprenticeships, pre-apprenticeships and courses across many different subjects to give students the skills, knowledge and experience they need to succeed at work or university.
Number of Post-16 leavers: 4	1	1	1	1

2017 Post-16 Leavers FE Destinations	Harrington Scheme	CONEL College	University of Westminster	North Kent College
	The Harrington Scheme in Highgate provides a unique opportunity for young adults with learning disabilities and/or difficulties, delivering individual learning programmes designed to help them into employment, further education or a more rewarding life.	The College of Haringey, Enfield and North East London (CONEL) offers a wide range of apprenticeships, pre-apprenticeships and courses across many different subjects to give students the skills, knowledge and experience they need to succeed at work or university.	A university which started out 180 years ago as the UK's first polytechnic institution, established to educate the working people of London. Today they continue to build on this reputation, helping students from a variety of backgrounds to realise their full potential.	North Kent College is a college of Further and Higher Education located across campuses in Dartford and Gravesend, Kent, England, with Partner College status with the University of Greenwich, particularly the Greenwich Maritime Institute
Number of Post-16 leavers: 4	1	1	1	1

2018 Post-16 Leavers FE Destinations	Westminster Kingsway College	City and Islington College	MENCAP	The Leighton Project
	A further education college in central London with centres in Camden and Westminster offering academic and vocational courses at all levels for 16-18 year olds and adult learners, including BTECs, A-Levels, Apprenticeships, Foundation Degrees, Access to HE, Higher Education, Distance Learning, Employability Training and Short Courses, as well as bespoke training for employers, Apprenticeships and a careers guidance programme to support students progressing on to positive destinations, in work or further study.	A FE college who are committed to providing an inclusive learning environment and aim to make the most of every student's learning opportunities. City and Islington College is one of the largest further education colleges in London, with four specialist centres across North London. Located across Angel, Holloway Road, Finsbury Park and Camden Road, with a satellite hub in Enfield, we offer an extensive range of academic and vocational courses for all ages.	Mencap is the UK's leading learning disability charity working with people with a learning disability and their families and carers. They offer internships to support young people with a learning disability, aged between 16 and 24 years old, to make the important step from education into employment: helping them get ahead as they move into adulthood.	The Leighton Project is a two year further education course for 16 to 25 year olds with mild to moderate learning difficulties leading to the achievement of the Essential Skills Award, helping to improve literacy, numeracy and IT skills and leading towards more independent living.
Number of Post-16 leavers: 5	1	1	2	1

2019 Post-16 Leavers FE Destinations	Westminster Kingsway College	City and Islington College	CONEL	Capel Manor	MENCAP	The Autism Project
--------------------------------------	------------------------------	----------------------------	-------	-------------	--------	--------------------

	A further education college in central London with centres in Camden and Westminster offering academic and vocational courses at all levels for 16-18 year olds and adult learners, including BTECs, A-Levels, Apprenticeships, Foundation Degrees, Access to HE, Higher Education, Distance Learning, Employability Training and Short Courses, as well as bespoke training for employers, Apprenticeships and a careers guidance programme to support students progressing on to positive destinations, in work or further study.	A FE college who are committed to providing an inclusive learning environment and aim to make the most of every student's learning opportunities. City and Islington College is one of the largest further education colleges in London, with four specialist centres across North London. Located across Angel, Holloway Road, Finsbury Park and Camden Road, with a satellite hub in Enfield, we offer an extensive range of academic and vocational courses for all ages.	The College of Haringey, Enfield and North East London (CONEL) offers a wide range of apprenticeships, pre-apprenticeships and courses across many different subjects to give students the skills, knowledge and experience they need to succeed at work or university.	Capel Manor College is a further education college at Bulls Cross, Enfield, London. It offers a range of full and part-time land-based courses which lead to nationally recognised qualifications and potential progression into employment or on to further study. The College also offers a unique experience in that we believe there is nowhere else quite like us in Europe in terms of our facilities, activities, staff and students.	Mencap is the UK's leading learning disability charity working with people with a learning disability and their families and carers. They offer internships to support young people with a learning disability, aged between 16 and 24 years old, to make the important step from education into employment: helping them get ahead as they move into adulthood.	The Autism Project is a unique collaboration of parents, professionals, and community members that offers family navigation, support, education, and community.
Number of Post-16 leavers: 11	5	1	1	1	2	1

2020 Post-16 Leavers FE Destinations	BIMM	City and Islington College	MENCAP	Capel Manor
	BIMM Institute opens the doors to the music industry. We encourage creative freedom, provide real-world industry experiences and build a community across our eight colleges in the UK, Ireland and Germany. Students are given access to unrivalled industry connections, experienced lecturers who live and breathe the world of music and the chance to choose from specialist courses such as Songwriting, Electronic Music Production and Music Business – as well as joint honours degrees like Music Performance with Music Production.	A FE college who are committed to providing an inclusive learning environment and aim to make the most of every student's learning opportunities. City and Islington College is one of the largest further education colleges in London, with four specialist centres across North London. Located across Angel, Holloway Road, Finsbury Park and Camden Road, with a satellite hub in Enfield, we offer an extensive range of academic and vocational courses for all ages.	Mencap is the UK's leading learning disability charity working with people with a learning disability and their families and carers. They offer internships to support young people with a learning disability, aged between 16 and 24 years old, to make the important step from education into employment: helping them get ahead as they move into adulthood.	Capel Manor College is a further education college at Bulls Cross, Enfield, London. It offers a range of full and part-time land-based courses which lead to nationally recognised qualifications and potential progression into employment or on to further study. The College also offers a unique experience in that we believe there is nowhere else quite like us in Europe in terms of our facilities, activities, staff and students.
Number of Post-16 leavers: 4	1	1	1	1

2021 Post-16 Leavers FE Destinations	Westminster Kingsway College	City and Islington College	BSIX College	Birkbeck University
	A further education college in central London with centres in Camden and Westminster offering academic and vocational courses at all levels for 16-18 year olds and adult learners, including BTECs, A-Levels, Apprenticeships, Foundation Degrees, Access to HE, Higher Education, Distance Learning, Employability Training and Short Courses, as well as bespoke training for employers, Apprenticeships and a careers guidance programme to support students progressing on to positive destinations, in work or further study.	A FE college who are committed to providing an inclusive learning environment and aim to make the most of every student's learning opportunities. City and Islington College is one of the largest further education colleges in London, with four specialist centres across North London. Located across Angel, Holloway Road, Finsbury Park and Camden Road, with a satellite hub in Enfield, we offer an extensive range of academic and vocational courses for all ages.	Mencap is the UK's leading learning disability charity working with people with a learning disability and their families and carers. They offer internships to support young people with a learning disability, aged between 16 and 24 years old, to make the important step from education into employment: helping them get ahead as they move into adulthood.	Birkbeck, University of London (formally Birkbeck College, University of London), is a public research university located in Bloomsbury, London, England, and a constituent college of the federal University of London. Established in 1823 as the London Mechanics' Institute by its founder, Sir George Birkbeck, and its supporters, Jeremy Bentham, J. C. Hobhouse and Henry Brougham, Birkbeck is one of the few universities to specialise in evening higher education in the United Kingdom.
Number of Post-16 leavers: 9	4	2	2	1